

The security situation in south-eastern Niger continues to deteriorate due to repeated attacks by Boko Haram. Since the first Boko Haram attack on the Nigerien territory in February 2015 to date, several other incursions have been reported in the region. These attacks have caused the displacement of thousands of people. As a consequence, the humanitarian needs in the region have increased, in a context characterized by limited resources for an adequate response and by localized access challenges.

INTERNAL DISPLACEMENT

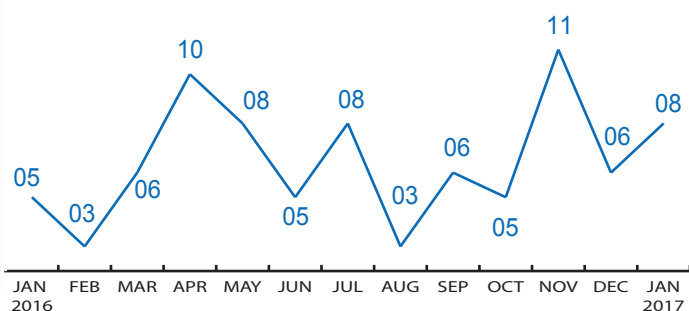

121,391¹

(1. Source: Government. 31 dec 2016.)

POPULATION MOVEMENTS TRENDS

NUMBER OF ATTACKS AND SECURITY INCIDENTS

80 attacks in 2015
76 attacks in 2016

NATURE OF SECURITY INCIDENTS*

138 attacks and clashes
10 mine explosions
04 unaccounted for
12 other

*(Attacks and security incidents which occurred between 06 Feb 2015 and 31 Jan 2017)