Central African Republic
20 August 2015: Two ICRC team members were injured in the region of Bambarias they evacuated wounded during an outbreak of renewed inter-communal violence that left at least five civilians dead and eight others injured. According to UNDSS, three aid workers were injured. Yahoo News.

Democratic Republic of the Congo
21 August 2015: Armed robbers intercepted a two-vehicle INGO convoy on the Kanyabayonga-Kikuku road in the area of Mutunda, Kyaghala village, and stole valuables and mobile phones. No further information available.

Mali
08 August 2015: Five UN contractors died and four others survived a hostage-taking in the town of Sévaré, which had not previously experienced extremist attacks. Eight other people, among them Mali soldiers and the hostage takers, died. The fighters first targeted a military base. After being repelled by Mali soldiers, they stormed two hotels, one of them popular among workers of the UN’s Multidimensional Integrated Stabilization Mission in Mali (MINUSMA). Government soldiers surrounded the hotel and the standoff continued for nearly 24 hours. The four surviving UN contractors had been hiding without being discovered by the attackers. According to a statement, the extremists were linked to the Algerian jihadist Mokhtar Belmokhtar, who runs his own extremist Al-Murabitoun group.
