

Number of Vulnerable Orphaned Children Identified

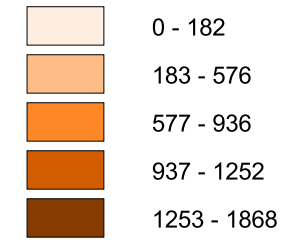

VAM Unit
Lesotho Country Office

0 80 Kilometers

Number of Vulnerable Orphaned Children

Interpretation:

This map illustrates the number of orphaned children identified as living with households vulnerable to hunger.

Over half of those households hosting single and double orphans were considered by their community to be vulnerable to hunger at the time of the exercise. Further, almost two-thirds of those households hosting double orphaned children, were considered to be vulnerable to hunger.

The Targeting Exercise results suggest that orphan status is a strong indicator of household vulnerability.

Source: DMA-WFP Targeting Exercise