

Peru - Floods

28 January 2003

OCHA Situation Report No. 1

"... due to heavy rains in neighboring Bolivia last week, 5 rivers in the department of Madre de Dios in the south-east of Peru, have overflowed causing extensive flooding."

Data Source: United States Geological Survey 1996

Map produced by ReliefWeb
28 January 2003
See ReliefWeb for further details

The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Areas Affected

- | | |
|---------------------|--------------------------|
| 1. Punquiri | 6. Melgar |
| 2. Boca Colorado | 7. Azangaro |
| 3. Inambari | 8. Huancane |
| 4. Puerto Maldonado | 9. San Antonio de Putino |
| 5. Carabaya | |

Source: OCHA Situation Report No. 1
Peru - Floods 27 January 2003