

REGIONAL SUMMARY

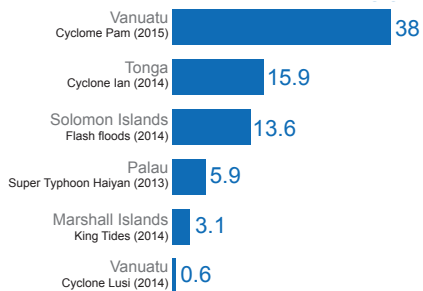

306,000
affected people

20,000
displaced people

48
killed

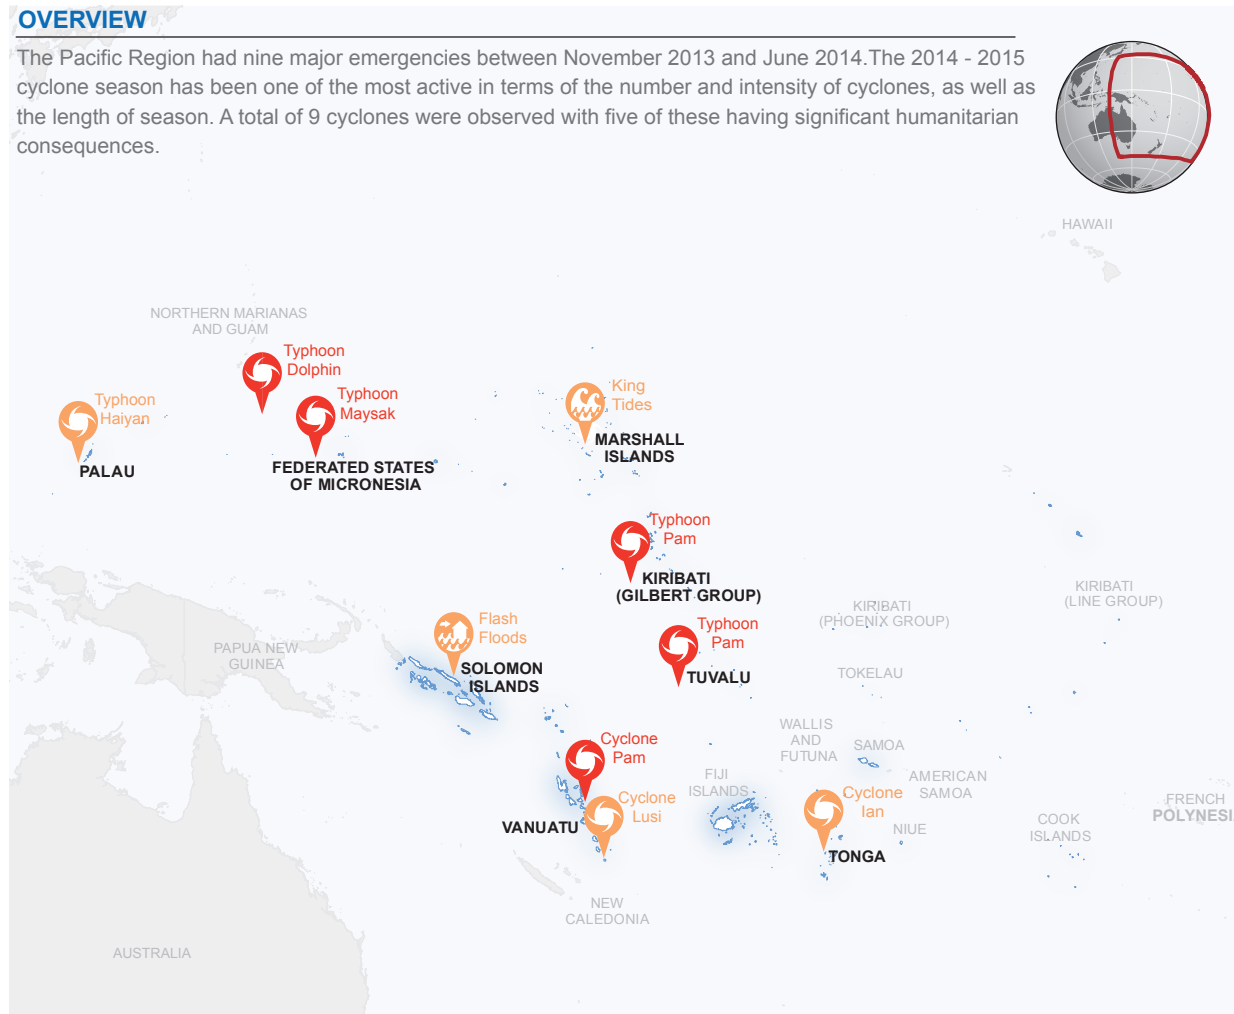

77 million
funding requirement

Funding Requirements (in million US$) by Country/Disaster

OVERVIEW

The Pacific Region had nine major emergencies between November 2013 and June 2014. The 2014 - 2015 cyclone season has been one of the most active in terms of the number and intensity of cyclones, as well as the length of season. A total of 9 cyclones were observed with five of these having significant humanitarian consequences.

SOLOMON ISLANDS

Three days of heavy rain caused severe flash floods in early April. Over 50,000 people were affected in Honiara and Guadalcanal

52,000 affected
10,000 displaced
22 killed

VANUATU

Tropical Cyclone Lusi passed over as a Category 2 system between 10 to 13 March 2014

20,000 affected
149 displaced
10 killed

MARSHALL ISLANDS

On 3 March 2014, king tides inundated Majuro Atoll and some of the outer islands, including Arno Atoll, Mili Atoll and Kili Island

1,730 affected
940 displaced

TONGA

Tropical Cyclone Ian as a Category 5 system passed directly over the Ha'apai Group on 11 January 2014

5,000 affected
2,335 displaced
1 killed

KIRIBATI

Tropical Cyclone Pam passed over as a Category 2 system between 9 to 10 March 2015

2000 affected

TUVALU

Tropical Cyclone Pam passed over as a Category 3 system between 10 to 11 March 2015

4,600 affected
350 displaced

VANUATU

Tropical Cyclone Pam passed over as a Category 5 system between 10 to 13 March 2015

189,000 affected
4000 displaced
11 killed

FEDERATED STATES OF MICRONESIA

Typhoon Maysak made a landfall at Chuuk Lagoon 29 March and then Uliithi and Yap on 1 April 2015

29,700 affected
1500 displaced
4 killed

PALAU

Super Typhoon Haiyan passed directly over the island of Kayangel on 7 November 2013

2300 affected
900 displaced