On 25 August insurgents attacked army and police posts in Rakhine, resulting in violence, mass displacement of civilians and the suspension of most aid activities. In the 100 days since, more than 625,000 refugees have fled into Bangladesh.

Humanitarian response (since 25 August)

- 150,000 households have received emergency shelter kits.
- 678,000 refugees reached with some form of food assistance.
- 511,000 people have been reached with health care services.
- 568,800 370,000 refugees reached with immediate WASH assistance.
- 68,100 children received support in 239 different Child Friendly Spaces (CFS).
- 94,000 most vulnerable people reached with nutrition intervention.
- 58,500 children are receiving early learning and non-formal basic education.
- 344,000 individuals have access to site management services.
- 73 humanitarian partners present in the response.

The numbers in perspective

- WASHINGTON 681,000 est. population
- REFUGEE INFUX 626,000 population
- 177 km²
