* These partners are directly contracted by the IHF to implement activities under the concerned projects in Baghdad. It should be noted that many of these partners lead multi-partner consortia with which they implement assistance in partnership with additional national and international NGO partners.

 WHO’s health consortium project, funded through the IHF 2020 1st Standard Allocation, targets 1.2 million people including some 665,000 women and children residing in Baghdad, who are expected to benefit from specialized training and awareness-raising activities, including for reproductive and child health assistance. Due to differences in the way WHO has defined the number of direct beneficiaries, they have been excluded from the estimation of the total targeted beneficiaries of IHF-funded projects in the governorate.
