Floods have been reported in West Africa since July this year. As of 28 September, floods have caused more than 630,000 affected and homeless in thirteen countries (Benin, Burkina Faso, Côte d’Ivoire, Gambia, Ghana, Liberia, Mali, Mauritania, Niger, Nigeria, Senegal, Sierra Leone and Togo.)