

Lack of access to safe water

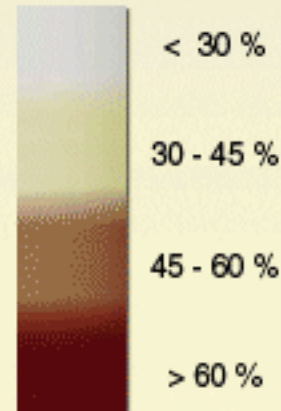

An improved water source includes wells or public pipes that provide at least 20 litres per day, accessible within a few minutes walk.

Developed countries (Europe, North America, Australia etc.)
0 million people

Latin America and the Caribbean
70 million people without an improved water source

Share of total population without an improved water source

Countries are proportional to the number of people without an improved water source

