

Viet Nam - Floods

18 November 2003

OCHA Situation Report No. 5

Since 12 November, torrential rains have hit Central Viet Nam and caused massive floods and landslides, bringing the total number of fatalities since mid October to more than 100.

The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations