

Iran

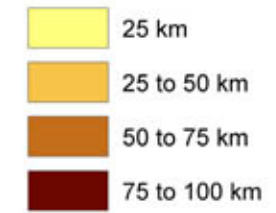

26 December 2003

OCHA Situation Report No. 2

"An earthquake of magnitude 6.7 struck the city of Bam, Kerman Province in southeastern Iran. The number of casualties ...is expected to be high"

Distance from Epicenter

An M6.7 earthquake struck the city of Bam, Kerman Province, at 05:27 hrs (lcl time). Media are reporting high fatalities, with 4,000 deaths in Bam (population = 80,000).

60% of houses in Bam destroyed

The Government of Iran welcomes international assistance.

Map Produced by

26 December 2003
www.reliefweb.int

The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations