

Bosnia and Herzegovina - Floods

13 April 2004

IFRC Information Bulletin No. 1

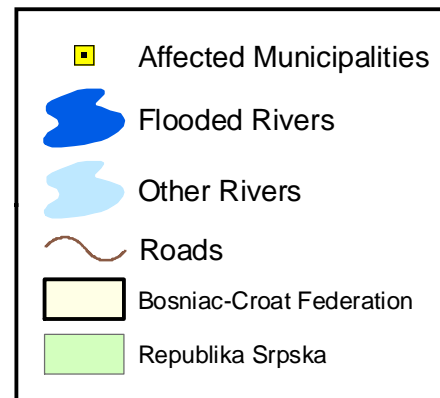

"According to the weather forecast, (...) the rain will continue to fall during the next six days with some short breaks (...). Further increase of the water level is expected."

Several hundred families evacuated.
An estimated 300,000 people affected.

Extensive damage to the houses, infrastructure, communication system and crops is expected.

Data Source: IFRC Information Bulletin No. 1
Bosnia and Herzegovina - Floods
13 April 2004

The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations

Map Produced by

13 April 2004
www.reliefweb.int