A strong earthquake centred in the restive Russian region of Chechnya killed at least 13 people, injured more than 100 others and caused widespread havoc on Saturday.

- Agence France-Presse, 11 Oct 2008

The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations. Narrative and Statistical Source: AFP. Russia: Quake kills at least 13 in Chechnya. 11 Oct., 2008.

Base Map Sources: UNCS, ESRI, USGS. Map created 13 Oct., 2008.