

Refugees and displaced people from the former Yugoslavia since 1991

Some 600,000 to 800,000 people emigrated to other European countries while 10,000-15,000 sought asylum in the United States or Australia

Spheres are proportional to the number of asylum seekers.