Thousands of people have lost their lives and millions of people were affected by the crisis due to the conflicts between Syrian government and demonstrators, which has started in March 15th, 2011 and has spread nation-wide with the demonstrations in April 2011.

More than 5.6 million people had to leave the country.

Within the scope of Syrian Crisis Humanitarian Aid Activities, Community Based Migration Programmes was established in March 25, 2016 under Directorate of Migration and Refugee Services in order to manage the crisis and establish collaborations provided by International Federation of Red Cross Red Crescent Societies, partner National Societies and International Committee of Red Cross who are the components of the Movement.

Within the Community Based Migration Programmes, different projects are being developed by agreeing with partner institutions in order to provide solutions for the needs of the beneficiaries. The projects does not only include services held within a certain time frame; but also it contains activities that will be carried out in line with the new requirements.

As of January 2020, more than 3.5 million Syrians live in our country.

In Community Based Migration Programmes, different projects are being developed by agreeing with partner institutions in order to provide solutions for the needs of the beneficiaries. The projects does not only include services held within a certain time frame; but also it contains activities that will be carried out in line with the new requirements.

In-Kind Relief Project

With the cooperation with IFRC, it has been continued to provide services to Syrian people living in cities and camps under the In-Kind Relief Project. It has been reached to 636 400 people since 2006.

Community Based Migration Programmes reached

1 934 875 people