

Democratic Republic of Congo: Humanitarian Crisis in Bukavu, South Kivu Province

OCHA Situation Report No. 1
29 May 2004

"Clashes involving the use of heavy armaments erupted Wednesday evening in the town of Bukavu, South Kivu"

Clashes erupted Wednesday evening between rival factions of the newly integrated Congolese army (Forces Armees de la RDC or FARDC). Soldiers loyal to Colonel Mutebuzi are fighting pro-integration forces led by transitional government-appointed General Mbuza Mabe

Map Produced by
ReliefWeb
1 June 2004
www.reliefweb.int

The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations