

North-east Syria Humanitarian Crisis | New Population Displacement

Since the beginning of the Turkish military operation "Peace Spring" on 9 October 2019 and the ensued fighting, humanitarian access to the border zone in North-East Syria has been negatively affected, which is impacting the delivery of humanitarian assistance to the affected population.

SITUATION OVERVIEW
(since 9 October 2019)

- 99,629
- 88
in Al Hasakah Governorate
- 115,490
Source: UN OCHA as of 5 November
- 14,369
Source: IOM DTM as of 6 November

Overall IDPs in North-east Syria
prior to 9 October 2019
710,000 (estimated)
Source: UN OCHA as of 5 November

- New Internally Displaced Persons (IDPs)
 - Returnees*
 - Refugees (Iraq)
 - IDPs Camp
 - IDPs Collective shelters (location)
 - Refugees Camp (Iraq)
 - Empty Camp
 - Area of informal IDPs settlements
 - Direction of new IDPs
 - Direction of refugees (to Iraq)
 - Direction of returnees*
- Source: UN OCHA as of 5 November, IOM DTM as of 6 November

- Border Crossing
Source: UN OCHA
- Closed
 - Restricted
 - Open
 - Dam
 - Main hospital
 - Main Airport/Air base
 - M4 Highway
 - Main roads
 - Rivers
 - Governorate boundary
 - Name Governorate with affected population
 - Settlements
Source: Humanitarian OpenStreetMap

*People returned to their places of origin

