

Pakistan - Earthquake Occurred on 14 February 2004

"An earthquake...struck Pakistan's North-West Frontier Province on 14 February...24 persons have been killed"

OCHA Situation Report No. 1
16 February 2004

An earthquake measuring 5.7 on the Richter scale struck Pakistan's North-West Frontier Province on Saturday, 14 February, at approximately 03:30hrs local time. An aftershock measuring 5.5 occurred 90 minutes later in the same area.

- 24 persons killed
- 50 persons injured
- Battagram landslide killed 13 persons
- Deaths reported in Kohistan and Bisham

Recent heavy snowfall expected to complicate relief efforts in remote areas

Source:
OCHA Situation Report No. 1
Pakistan - Earthquake
16 February 2004

Map Produced by ReliefWeb

17 February 2004
www.reliefweb.int

The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations