

JOINT UNEP/OCHA ENVIRONMENT UNIT MISSIONS IN 2014

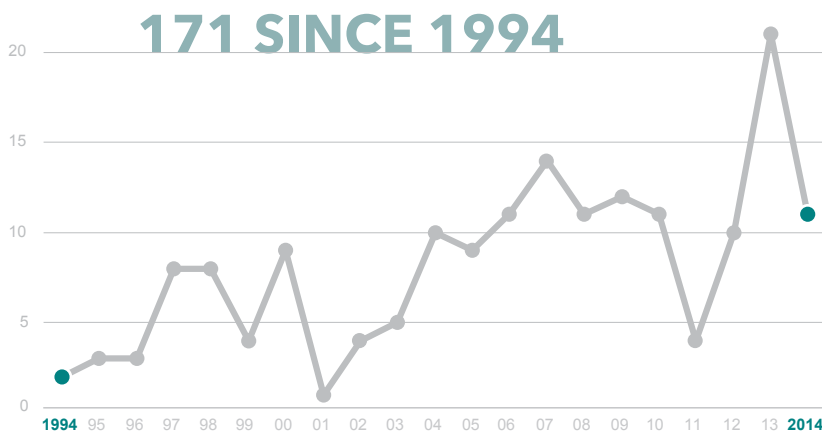

The United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) and the United Nations Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs (OCHA) respond to environmental emergencies through the Joint UNEP/OCHA Environment Unit (JEU). JEU combines UNEP's environmental expertise with the OCHA-coordinated humanitarian network. This helps to ensure an integrated approach by coordinating international efforts and mobilizing partners.

NUMBER OF MISSIONS

JEU conducted 11 MISSIONS IN 2014, providing support and expertise on environmental emergency assessments, and conducting training that delivers knowledge and understanding of effective response to a variety of environmental emergencies. JEU also provides technical experts with specialized skills to UN Disaster Assessment and Coordination (UNDAC) missions.

TYPES OF MISSIONS

Of the 11 missions conducted in 2014, the majority were to provide training on preparedness and to build capacity of Governments, organizations and partners.

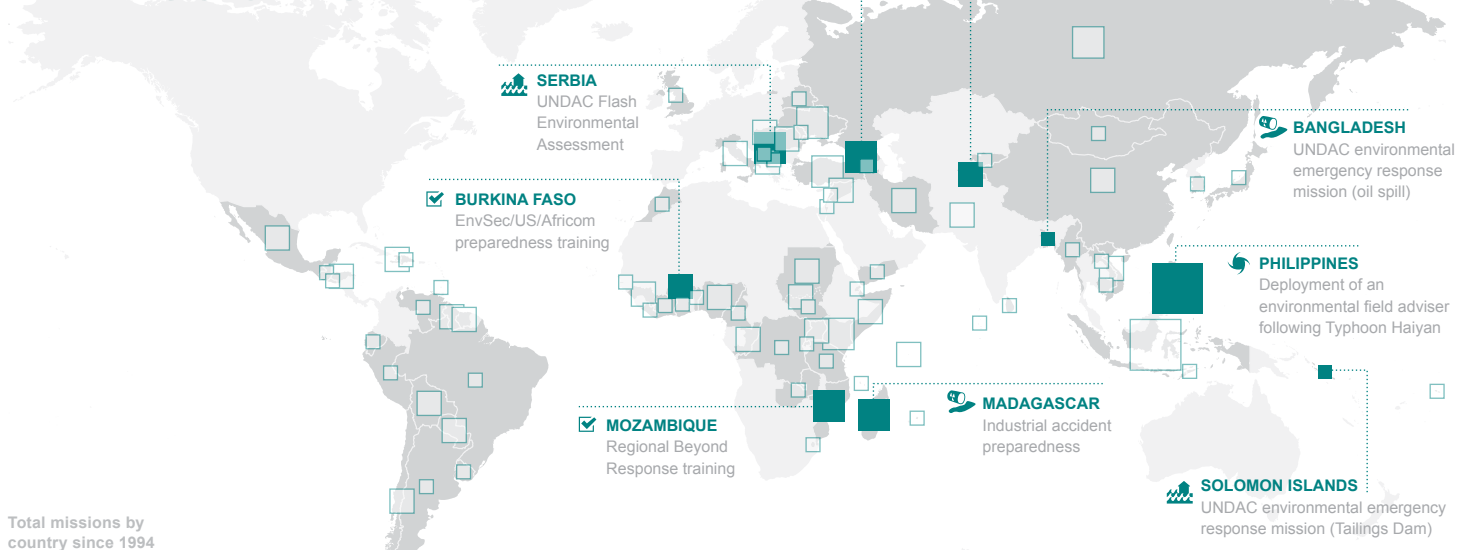

COUNTRIES COVERED

Assistance was provided to 9 COUNTRIES IN 2014, which included responding to environmental emergencies and providing training on preparedness and assessments.

85 SINCE 1994

Total missions by country since 1994

The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations. Final boundary between Republic of Sudan and the Republic of South Sudan has not yet been determined. Map projection: Miller Cylindrical. Creation date: 24 March 2015.