5 Dec 2016 - Heavy rains and flooding affected the Assuit, Red Sea, Sohag, South Sinai and Qena governorates of Egypt in late October and early November. At least 6,500 families — approximately 32,500 people — need emergency food, shelter, water and sanitation. Twenty-six people have been killed and 72 injured.