

Indonesia: Floods and Landslides

OCHA Situation Report No. 1
 Issued 23 February 2006
 GLIDE: FL-2006-000027-IDN

"On 21 February, torrential rain triggered the overflow of Rano Wangko River causing flash flooding and landslides in Manado City."

SITUATION

On 13 February, floods and landslides hit Manado, Minahasa Selatan, Minahasa and Tomohon city. One week later, other flash floods and landslides occurred in the same area.

Field assessments of damage ongoing.

ACTION

Funding from two Government departments.

Food and non-food items on standby.

Rescue and shelter equipment provided by Health Department.

Datum: WGS84.
 Map data source: UN Cartographic Section, HIC-Indonesia.

Created by the ReliefWeb Map Centre
 Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs
 United Nations - 23 February 2006

The names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.