

Open sources reported damage to, loss of or the destruction of a wide range of humanitarian infrastructure on 160 occasions between January 2015 and June 2016.

In 2015, open sources reported damage to, loss of or the destruction of 114 aid infrastructure in 108 incidents. During the first six months of 2016, open sources reported damage to, loss of or the destruction of 61 aid infrastructures in 52 incidents. Infrastructure events report damage to, loss of or the destruction of assets, property or buildings of an aid agency through burglary, looting, raids, robbery, theft and military operations.

Ambulances and other
Emergency Vehicles
Compounds and Offices
Convoys, Motorcycles
and Vehicles
Equipment (computers,
laptops, mobile phones,
hard drives) and Warehouses
Fuel Barges
Guesthouses and Residences
Health Clinics and Hospitals
Loss of Supplies in Transit
Project Sites and Protection Sites

49	Syria
24	South Sudan
21	Yemen
19	Mali
12	Afghanistan
13	CAR
6	Sudan
3	DRC
3	Libya
3	Nigeria
3	Pakistan
3	Somalia
2	Guinea
2	Kenya
2	Myanmar
1	Ethiopia
1	Greece
1	Lebanon
1	Mozambique
1	Nauru
1	OPT
1	Philippines
1	Pakistan
1	Saudi Arabia
1	Sweden
1	Ukraine

These data has been prepared by the Aid in Danger project by Insecurity Insight using the Security in Numbers Database.

Reported incidents affecting humanitarian aid infrastructure based on open source reporting between January 2015-June 2016, as of 16 August 2016.

Data collection is ongoing and these numbers may change as new information is made available. More information www.insecurityinsight.org/aidindanger/

Aid in Danger

