

Many Member States are offering support to the Nepal Earthquake response. Below is a snapshot of some of the operational and in-kind support provided based on initial information received, reflecting part of the tremendous effort of the entire international community in support of the Government and people of Nepal.

AUSTRALIA Two C17 aircraft carrying relief supplies and additional personnel 	CANADA Assessment team and Disaster Assistance Response Team (DART) deployed 	CHINA 62 member USAR team including 6 dogs A 58 personnel medical team Tents, generators, medical supplies and water purification equipment IL-76 planes with two teams of PLA soldiers carrying four sniffer dogs, five recovery vehicles and rescue equipment, including life detection equipment and entry tool
BELGIUM Deployed Medium SAR team	DENMARK 8 experts and equipment to set up comms/coordination centers
FRANCE Three planes with humanitarian and civilian protection personnel 50 tonnes of in-kind aid (mainly medical aid, WASH and nutritional aid)	INDIA Launched an extensive humanitarian relief and rescue operation: OPERATION MAITRI Several aircraft, carrying medical supplies, and a mobile hospital 10 NDRF teams (450 people including 90 NDRF personnel internationally trained in search and rescue) and six more on their way		INDONESIA Emergency kits, tents, food, medical supplies and sanitation kits
GERMANY Water purification module	Engineering task force, 18 medical units, and six medical teams Trucks with medical supplies and a team of 41 medical and paramedical staff One Unmanned Aerial Vehicle (UAV)		ITALY Foreign medical team
ISRAEL Deployed a large Israel Defence Force (IDF) delegation including 240 medical and logistics officers as well as a field hospital 	10 Inmarsat systems for satellite communications and 250 high frequency wireless sets 90 buses and 40 trucks full of relief material Communication and power infrastructure experts 22 tonnes of food, two tonnes of medical supplies, 50 tonnes of water, 10 tonnes of blankets and other relief material		LUXEMBOURG Telecoms support
JAPAN Japan Disaster Relief (JDR) Rescue Team, with 70 members, assessment team of 4 Emergency relief goods (tents, blankets, etc.)	POLAND Heavy USAR and 81 experts including doctors and paramedics 		PAKISTAN Four C-130 aircraft carrying a 30-bed field hospital and army doctors and specialists Urban search-and-rescue teams equipped with radars and SAR dogs 2,000 meals, 200 tents and 600 blankets
RUSSIA 87 member USAR team	QATAR 21 professionals and volunteers to distribute emergency relief materials including food packages, hygiene kits, sheltering materials, tarpaulin sheets and medical supplies 40 bed field hospital that can provide a full range of medical services to more than 30,000 individuals for 30 to 120 days 'Kit 5' water and sanitation system 240 metric tonnes relief items, including foodstuffs, medicines, power generators and tents		REPUBLIC OF KOREA Korean Disaster Relief Team, composed of 40 persons, mainly SAR and medical staff
SWEDEN 70 member, SAR dogs & equipment	SINGAPORE 69 member Operation Lionheart disaster relief contingent Singapore Armed Forces (SAF) medical team Personnel from the HADR Coordination Centre Two Republic of Singapore Air Force C-130 aircraft Relief items and emergency supplies		UAE 88 member SAR team Five Boeing 747 airlifts
SRI LANKA Medicines, dressing items, medical equip, water bottles, NFIs	TURKEY 42 member SAR Team AFAD cargo flight with medicine, food & hygiene kits		USA 128 person Disaster Assistance Response Team (DART)
NETHERLANDS 62 member USAR team	UNITED KINGDOM 60 member SAR and medical experts, 4 SAR dogs
NETHERLANDS 62 member USAR team
SWITZERLAND 13 experts			