NEW CALEDONIA (FRANCE)

On 5–6 March, Tropical Cyclone Niran passed over the Coral Sea along the western coast of New Caledonia. One person was reportedly injured and up to 400 people were evacuated to accommodation centres in Nouméa. About 39,000 houses experienced power outages and water shortage was reported in Maré Municipality (Loyalty Islands). Several buildings, including one school, were damaged in Maré Municipality (Loyalty Islands). Several people were evacuated to accommodation centres across the country. About 39,000 houses experienced power outages and water shortage was reported in Nouméa. About 39,000 houses experienced power outages and water shortage was reported in Maré Municipality (Loyalty Islands). Several buildings, including one school, were damaged in Maré Municipality (Loyalty Islands). About 39,000 houses experienced power outages and water shortage was reported in Maré Municipality (Loyalty Islands). Several buildings, including one school, were damaged in Maré Municipality (Loyalty Islands). Several people were evacuated to accommodation centres across the country. About 39,000 houses experienced power outages and water shortage was reported in Nouméa. About 39,000 houses experienced power outages and water shortage was reported in Maré Municipality (Loyalty Islands). Several buildings, including one school, were damaged in Maré Municipality (Loyalty Islands). Several people were evacuated to accommodation centres across the country. About 39,000 houses experienced power outages and water shortage was reported in Nouméa. About 39,000 houses experienced power outages and water shortage was reported in Maré Municipality (Loyalty Islands). Several buildings, including one school, were damaged in Maré Municipality (Loyalty Islands). Several people were evacuated to accommodation centres across the country.