

SWEDO, the Swedish Development Aid Organization (www.swedoaid.org) was founded in Stockholm in 1991 and operates in Iraq to deliver humanitarian aid and development assistance to over 1 million beneficiaries

SWEDO works in partnership with the World Food Program on the Food for Assets project in Thi Qar Governorate of Iraq to strengthen the resilience of vulnerable communities affected by water crisis, climate change and the overall loss of the marshland ecosystem

60 Km of water canals restored

2000+ community members participating in Cash Based Transfer activities

18,000 direct beneficiaries and assets providing benefits to 110,000 vulnerable people

Integrated activities for livelihoods adaptation to climate change and water scarcity

1000+ palm date trees restored

1000+ units of small livestock and vegetable gardens for smallholders

Community greenhouses

Empowered women for the Governance of the water resources and the resolution of community conflicts over natural resources

Disclaimer: SWEDO – the Swedish Development Aid Organization works in partnership with the WFP – World Food Program. Datum projection: WGS84. Project boundaries do not imply formal recognition from SWEDO or WFP. Data source: Hotosm, REACH, Landsat. Map produced: 01/06/2021. For copies or information: sdisperati@swedoaid.org