The MSYD-ASRA Health Special Need Fund (HSNF) aims to meet the needs of individuals with vulnerabilities that are not covered by the general health insurance provided by government; such as major / minor surgery, Personal medical equipment and consumables, Diagnostics and laboratory tests, Chronic medications and/or drugs, Support for transportation, accommodation and translation services related to health treatments. In this context, 198 individuals were provided with support within the scope of the 2018-2019 project period under HSNF. Three percent of these support services are major surgery and four percent minor surgery support was provided. On the other hand, Personal medical equipment and consumables were provided to the 62 percent of the total beneficiaries receiving HSNF support. In addition, four percent of 198 beneficiaries have received Diagnostic and laboratory tests that are not covered by general health insurance. In addition, chronic medication and/or drugs were provided for the eight percent. In addition, support for transportation, accommodation and translation services related to health treatment was provided to the two percent of 198 beneficiaries for people of concern for access to health care services. Finally, it is also noted that 17 percent of 198 beneficiaries have received wheelchairs, electric wheelchairs, postural wheelchairs and Air Beds.
As part of the MSYD-ASRA holistic approach, 8227 individuals underwent detailed needs analysis within the scope of protection and mental health / psychosocial support (MHPSS) activities carried out through Mamak and Altındağ Community Centers. In this study, the most appropriate care methods were identified for the person concerned, the care plan was identified, rapid and appropriate humanitarian intervention methods were applied and if necessary, they were directed to relevant public and non-governmental organizations. In addition, referrals were made for relevant individuals for MHPSS and HSNF transactions provided through our community centers.
MH-Promotion activities have been conducted on the subjects of Enuresis, Depression, Psychosocial Stressors, Posttraumatic Stress Disorder, Torture, Schizophrenia, Postpartum Depression, Grief, Epilepsy, Dementia and Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder through outreach teams, Altındağ and Mamak Community Centers. In this context, 3,170 individuals have reached information dissemination activities in total. Furthermore, informative materials on determined topics related to Mental Health were distributed.
Through the MSYD-ASRA Community Centers, awareness raising sessions were held on issues such as access to health and education services and child labor etc. within the scope of empowering the target groups. In this context, awareness raising sessions were held with 1240 individuals and information was disseminated on the fundamental rights arising from the status of the target group.
MSYD-ASRA Preventive and responsive awareness meetings were organized by Mamak and Altındağ Community Centers for the target group for the purpose of combating and raising awareness on gender-based violence. A total of 641 people participated in awareness-raising meetings, including trainings on Child Marriage, Domestic Violence, Gender and Types of Violence, Legal Rights and also a structured 9 session awareness-raising meeting on gender-based violence and gender roles. In addition, 102 participants participated in the sessions on Gender-based Violence and Roles, organized in 9 sessions, with 6 male groups formed alongside female groups.

Number of women, girls, men and boys participated to the awareness raising sessions on GBV specific topics

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Target (Planned)</th>
<th>Total (Achieved)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>500</td>
<td>641</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Achieved: 641%

- Female: 161 (51.22%)
- Male: 102 (38.78%)

9 Structured and Integrated Sessions on GBV
Relevant beneficiaries identified as a result of individual based needs analysis participated in structured Stress Management, Depression, Enuresis, Grief, Post Traumatic Stress Disorder, Disability for Caregivers psycho-trainings organized by MSYD-ASRA psychosocial support team. A total of 82 groups were formed for psycho-trainings, each of which lasted 6 sessions. The total number of individuals in the formed groups was 935.
Relevant beneficiaries identified as a result of individual based needs analysis participated in the communication skills courses, parenting skills courses, wool activities, yoga, sports, painting and guitar course sessions with MSYD-ASRA psychosocial support team and other expert trainers. Psycho-social support activities with the participation of 974 people were aimed to support the psychological well-being of the target group.

Number of individuals supported through psycho-social group activities as prevention purposes

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Target (Planned)</th>
<th>Total (Achieved)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1,000</td>
<td>974</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

974% of the target was achieved.
The MSYD-ASRA Protection and Psycho-social support team organized awareness-raising meetings on issues such as peer bullying, technology addiction, sleep hygiene, child labor, child marriage, as well as legal rights in the areas of education, health, etc. stemming from their status for the target group. A total of 928 people attended the awareness raising meetings hosted by schools, cultural centers, mosques, households and other local associations.

Number of individuals received mobile community-based awareness raising sessions

| Target (Planned) | 950 |
| Total (Achieved) | 928 |

The MSYD-ASRA Protection and Psycho-social support team organized awareness-raising meetings on issues such as peer bullying, technology addiction, sleep hygiene, child labor, child marriage, as well as legal rights in the areas of education, health, etc. stemming from their status for the target group. A total of 928 people attended the awareness raising meetings hosted by schools, cultural centers, mosques, households and other local associations.
The MSYD-ASRA Call Center provides information, guidance, counseling, access to services, psychosocial support, complaints, suggestions and access to MSYD-ASRA services. Within the scope of these services, 3145 different people benefited from call center services.

Hedef = 2400

Ulaşılan = 3145
Through MSYD-ASRA Community Centers, child-oriented psycho-social activities are conducted for groups of children aged 5-8 and 9-12. It is aimed to support the motor and cognitive development of children and to eventually enroll the school-age children who are not in school. In this context, 219 children were reached in activities carried out with a total of 9 groups of children.

Number of children who attend Psycho Social Support activities

Target = 240
Achieved = 219
Individual psychological counseling services are provided by the Mental Health department for individuals identified and/or requested by performing a detailed needs analysis by MSYD-ASRA case management unit. It provides services to victims of war, disabilities, victims of gender-based violence and to women and men and children suffering from problems such as peer bullying and sub-wetting. Within the scope of individual psychological counseling services provided by psychologists, 223 individuals benefited from this service.
Within the scope of the holistic approach of MSYD-ASRA, 1137 individuals were provided with care within the scope of the needs analysis conducted by the case management unit and the care plan determined with the beneficiary.
MSYD-ASRA Gender Based Violence the Case Management Unit carries out case management activities for cases of physical, sexual, emotional, psychological and material pressure and violence. In this context, the number of victims of gender-based violence (GBV) identified, supported and supported in the gender-based violence response plan was 70.

Target = 70

Achieved = 70
Project of Building Resilience Among Vulnerable Syrian Refugees in Turkey through Integrated Health, MHPSS and Protection Approaches

2019 Infographics