INDONESIA

Flood

Heavy rain has triggered flood and landslide in Banjar City, West Java Province. At least 136 houses were flooded and damaged because of the incident.

In Pangandaran District, West Java Province, flashflood submerged at least 65 houses. The local disaster management agency conducted damage assessment and provided assistance to the flood affected population.

Flood also submerged 561 houses in Surakarta, Central Java Province.

VIET NAM

Flood

Based on the report of the Central Steering Committee of Disaster Prevention and Control, flood has inundated 800 houses in Bac Binh District, Binh Thuan Province. The local authority evacuated numbers of families and provided assistance to the affected population.