South: Conflict and internal displacement

Fighting between Afghan National Security Forces (ANSF) and a non-state armed group (NSAG) continued in Uruzgan, Zabul, Nimroz and Kandahar provinces causing civilians to be displaced mainly to provincial capitals, according to local reports.

Conflict in Gizab District, Uruzgan province reportedly resulted in 13 civilian deaths including two women and two children while nine others were wounded. Several families were reportedly temporarily displaced and have since returned to their places of origin. Intense fighting was also reported in the vicinity of Tirinkot city causing people to be displaced within the province, according to preliminary reports.

In Kandahar province, hostilities continued in Maywand and Shahwalikot districts, and Kandahar city. The ANSF are reportedly conducting clearing operations in Dahla dam in Shahwalikot district, while an NSAG reportedly opened the irrigation water from the Dahla dam to agricultural areas and to the underground water-table in Kandahar City. In Hilmand province, ANSF clearing operation and airstrikes are ongoing in the western and southern parts of Lashkargah city. Humanitarian flights have been suspended to Lashkargah due to security threats.

Fighting intensified around Qalat City, Zabul province causing some families to be displaced to the city centre. In Nimroz province, civilians in the Ghorghori area of Khashrod District have reportedly been leaving for Zaranj City and Chakhansur district following a warning from an NSAG of fighting to come. According to local authorities, 3,458 people were displaced within and from Shinkay, Shahjoy and Suri district to Qalat District. A needs assessment has been initiated in Qalat City.

Between 7 and 10 June, 1,666 internally displaced persons (IDPs) were provided with food, emergency shelter, relief items, water, sanitation, hygiene and hygiene education and cash-based assistance in Kandahar province (140 people) and Lashkargah (1,526 people). An additional 1,691 people in need will be assisted in the coming days in Lashkargah.

North-east: Civilians killed and injured including from attack on NGO

Fighting between ANSF and an NSAG was reported in Aliabad and Khanabad Districts in Kunduz Province. According to local authorities, since the start of the conflict nearly 35,000 people have been displaced to Kunduz city and to safer locations in surrounding areas. Inter-agency teams identified 21,987 people to be in need of assistance. So far humanitarian aid has reached 7,147 people with assistance ongoing.

On 13 and 14 June, fighting in Eshkamish and Bangi district in Takhar province displaced some 490 people to Taloqan city and Khan-Abad district, Kunduz province. In Badakhshan, some 270 people were reportedly displaced by insecurity from Arghajkhaw district, province to Faizabad city on 13 June. During the reporting period, 17 civilians were killed and 38 others injured. On 8 June, an attack in Baghlan province claimed by the Islamic State of Khorasan on the Halo Trust resulted in the death of 10 deminers and severe injuries to 16 others.

Humanitarian partners reached 28,974 people affected by conflict and 8,491 others were identified to receive aid in the coming days.

East: Conflict affecting health services, causing displacement

Sporadic hostilities continued around and within Nurgaram's DAC in Nuristan province, Bad Pakh and Alishing in Laghman province, Hisarak in Nangarhar province and Ghaziabad in Kunar province while ANSF clearing operations continued in several districts. According to local authorities in Nangarhar province, as many as 1,400 families (approximately 9,800 people) may have been displaced in the reporting period. An inter-agency assessment mission has been planned to verify this information. The Duab district hospital remains closed as staff have yet to return. Since the start of the conflict, fighting has displaced a cumulative 23,000 people Laghman and 12,000 people in Nangarhar province, with a combined 24,000 IDPs verified as needing assistance.
