

42 people confirmed dead by the Government nearly US$ 500 million in damages nearly 62,000 people in more than 900 evacuation centres

The most affected areas are located less than 50km from the storm track. The population living in this area is

350,000 people

The map above shows where these people live. The graph at right shows the age and sex breakdown of the population living in the areas most severely affected.

The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Creation date: 26 Feb 2016

Glide number: TC-2016-000014-FJI

Sources: Fiji Ministry of Lands, Fiji Bureau of Statistics, Fiji Meteorological Service, SPC Statistics for Development Division

Feedback: ochapacific@un.org www.unocha.org/rop

www.reliefweb.int