Syrian Arab Republic
Armed conflict is causing large scale displacement and severely affecting people's safety and livelihoods.
6.8 million people in need
4.2 million IDPs
1.4 million refugees

Libya
Residual humanitarian needs mainly relate to internal displacement. The most vulnerable are those living in IDP settlements and camps, which are located in Tripoli, Benghazi and in the surrounds of Sirte, Misrata, Tarhouna and Diz.
1.3 million IDPs
280,000 returnees
56,544 IDPs

Iraq
Insecurity and protracted displacement continues to create significant humanitarian needs for many Iraqis.

Iran
On 9 and 16 April, two earthquakes measuring 6.3 and 7.8 on Richter scale killed 33 people and injured 870 in Bushehr and Sistan-o-Balochestan provinces.
152 villages affected
13,700 people provided with humanitarian assistance

Afghanistan
Armed conflict, widespread insecurity and high exposure to natural hazards has created a protracted humanitarian situation. On 24 April a 5.7 earthquake killed 18 people and injured 228 in Kunar and Nangarhar provinces.

280,000 returnees
1.3 million IDPs
1.4 million refugees

Palestine
The occupation and ongoing conflict have led to a protracted protection crisis. Restriction on the movement of people and goods negatively impact people's livelihoods.
1.8 million people in need

Yemen
Water scarcity, armed conflict, high food prices and poor public services are creating humanitarian needs.

237,000 refugees from horn of Africa
385,000 IDPs
4.8 million people affected by floods

13.1 million people lack access to safe water
45% of the population is food insecure

The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.}

Feedback: majidi@un.org  www.unocha.org  www.reliefweb.int