Across the Sahel, more than 6.7 million people are grappling with the effects of forced displacement. An upsurge in armed violence in parts of Burkina Faso, Mali and Niger as well as persistent conflict across the Lake Chad Basin and the Central African Republic continue to uproot people from their homes, increase suffering and hinder their return.

Refugees

1.17 million

Internally Displaced Persons (IDPs)

3.21 million

Returnees (former IDPs and Refugees)
