

Yemen is currently one of the most underfunded humanitarian crises in the world. The Yemen Humanitarian Response Plan (YHRP) is only 19 per cent funded, with US$298.1 million in contributions made against the $1.6 billion in requirements for the year. An additional $247.8 million has been contributed to humanitarian programmes outside the appeal and mainly by regional partners. The outstanding pledges from the regional donors amount to US$370 million where as traditional donors have pledged US$67.6 million that remains unpaid.
